

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Key Club International, a high school service sponsored by Kiwanis International, is observing the week of November 1-7 as Key Club Week; and,

WHEREAS, Key Club International in the State of South Dakota is comprised of over 344 high school students in 10 schools across the state; and,

WHEREAS, The local members are part of an international organization of over 125,000 students dedicated to serve, with purpose, their school and community, seeking to give primacy to the human and spiritual rather than the material values of life; and,

WHEREAS, They promote the adoption of higher standards in scholastics, sportsmanship, and social contacts and the development of a more concerned citizenship; and,

WHEREAS, Through their purposeful service, they have helped to build better communities, making their motto "Caring - Our Way of Life" more than just words—making it become a goal for living; and,

WHEREAS, Each member performs at least fifty hours of service to his/her home, school and community annually; and,

WHEREAS, The 1987-88 Theme and Major Emphasis Program "...for friendship's sake" calls upon all Key Clubbers to discover the great value of personal involvement wherever the need - the young child without a role model, the teenager with no one to talk to, the senior citizen seeking companionship, or anyone who needs someone to share a smile. The services provided by Key Club International will have a positive impact on our state and its citizens:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of November 1 through 7, 1987, as in South Dakota, and call upon the officials and citizens of this state to render all support to the students of this organization and make themselves aware of Key Club, whose members this day are fitting themselves to be better, more responsible citizens as they provide meaningful service to thousands less fortunate than themselves.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixteenth Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven.

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE SABELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
